DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of Applicant's Prior Art Statements, both filed January 12, 2006.

2. Claim 1 is presented for examination.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, line 2 the phrase "a handy type electric motor" is not understood. If Applicant intends limit the claim by reference to a brand name, the use of a copyright symbol should be used.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japan No. 61-24121 in view of Ballew. Japan('121) discloses a chainsaw sharpener comprising substantially all of the subject matter set forth in claim 1, except for the recitation of the wall faces having a substantial X-shape as seen in plan view. Ballew discloses a file guide having diverging walls to form a pair of opposed wall faces forming an X-shape as seen in plan view. To provide side wall faces on the lower surface of the guide body to aid in aligning the grinding tool with respect to the chain saw blade would have been obvious in view of Ballew.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Aksamit('045) is cited of interest to show a chainsaw sharpener having a guide body with depending side wall faces forming guide surfaces. Penberthy, and Kennemore are cited of interest to show chainsaw sharpeners having a repositionable guide body. Aksamit('908), Pearce, and Juncker are cited to show other chainsaw sharpeners with rotary cylindrical grinding members:
